OLD CONTINGENT AJ2004 EDITION 6 - 11th JANUARY 2004

Quote of the Day!

ON MY HONOUR, I PROMISE THAT I WILL DO MY DUTY TO MY GOD . . .

Don't forget - today is Sunday!

I met someone today ~

The guys in Troop 0808 met 'Skully' while they were out and about at Cyber Trek. Skully was a skeleton that kept following them around the city and even when they thought they had lost him in Myers, he popped up again. He even scared a young child on the escalator when he said BOO! Skully told the guys he was a Venturer Scout from South Australia and that he was enjoying working at the Jamboree.

Troop 0808 then told me that they were the best troop at the Jamboree but I reckon some other troops may have something to say about that.

Freddo Frog Challenge

Come to QCHQ and identify where on the Jamboree site the photo below was taken and win a chocolate freddo frog. Get in quick, there's a limited number of prizes.

Troop 0805 has 4 Japanese Scouts from a contingent of 15 staying with them. As a gesture of goodwill, they have erected this structure in the campsite. It represents the leaders and the youth members. Shown here are Naoki Ogiwara, Takuma Miyagawa, Tsubasa Ota, Tasuku Nakatogawa and Leader, Hidehiko Ishiguro. Troop 0604 has another 4 scouts, there are 4 venturer scouts, 1 rover and 2 leaders also in the contingent.

Camping Standards Awards

10th Jan. Troops - 0317, 0517, 1015

To all troops who have so far taken out these prestigious awards, I'm sorry if Maurie, Doc, Alan or Ruth have been annoying you. Actually, you have all met the challenges extremely well so congratulations. There's still plenty of time for others to join this elite club.

Doc & John up to no good as usual. Talk about a pair of Inspector Gadgets.

Alex, Josh, Paul, Ruth'less', Casey, Simon, Katie, Kate, Abraham, Matt & Cailan from Troop 0808 on their way to the Patrol Challenge.

Handy Hint for busy scouts – Sunny or cloudy, always wear your hat

What is OZANZ?

Yesterday I told you about our Queensland youth forum representative, Marc Burton. Our other representative is 14 year old Caitlin Reinke. Caitlin is from Capella near Emerald in Central Queensland. She lives on a farm where they grow cattle and grain. Caitlin doesn't go to school like most of you would. She has her lessons on the farm with her mum and dad. She may do science out on the tractor with her father or English at home with mum. Twice a week she has maths lessons over the phone with a teacher in Rockhampton. Caitlin is the 2nd of 7 siblings and she helps with reading to her younger brothers. Caitlin goes to Scouts every week at Emerald which is an hours drive from the farm.

This photo is a complete abuse of freedom of the press. In other words, I write the newsletter and I can put what I like in it. This is my son and I'm very proud of him. However Matthew, how the heck are we going to explain that tat to your mum?

Matthew, Zac & Ben from Troop 0909 having a break during chill out. They were contemplating a bit of a dilemma. They are looking forward to going home but they also want to keep going at the Jamboree. They have all the sub camp badges and are trying for others. Best of luck!

Screen Printing will be available on Monday, Wednesday and Thursday only next week. If you want a shirt or whatever done, make sure you get it on these days
