

Queensland

FLATOUT

The Ultimate Jamboree 2004 Newsletter

QLD CONTINGENT AJ2004 EDITION 7 – 12th JANUARY 2004

Quote of the Day!

Modern technology defeating one of our finest:

HELP! How do you get a text message from my phone. I can't read it and I can't see it. Oh and can you turn it up, I can't hear it either!

Well done John Palmer.

I met someone today ~

Actually I heard a funny joke! It went something like this.

“Now this is serious guys – something about going to Dr Greenfield to overcome a small problem. The remedy involved watching scooby doo in a mirror. Then a kookaburra flew down to a billabong and the lizards name was Myrtle not Matilda. By Tuesday the remedy wasn't working and on Wednesday Sue was late for the bus. She met a nice man on the bus who sang nursery rhymes like hickory dickory doc on the way to school.

Now that I come to write it, it doesn't seem funny at all. I must have missed a bit out.

What's Comin' Up?

13th Jan – Qld Leaders Night

14th Jan – Qld Leaders Night

Jamboree Fast Facts:

Peter Hansen From Troop 0614 won a NSW hat for quoit tossing.

Bob Edmiston aka 'Bullaman' Scout Leader from Childers won the jar of

Birthdays: (S) Scout (L) Leader

12th (S) Sam Ellem – Troop 0113

(S) Kenneth Jeffery – Troop 1001

(S) Thomas Pennington – Troop 0703

(S) Simon Salleras – Troop 0706

Freddo Frog Challenge

Come to QCHQ and identify where on the Jamboree site the photo below was taken and win a chocolate freddo frog. Get in quick, there's a limited number of prizes.

A certain PL who shall remain nameless was dragged bed and all onto parade this morning at Troop 0614. It seems that sleeping in will not be tolerated in 'Barnacle' Patrol. And if you don't think we've got any evidence, think again!

Other patrols in Troop 0614 are Clam, Starfish, Sea Cows, Fish & Sea Cucumbers – keeping in theme with sub camp 6, Challenge of the Sea.

Tip for busy Scouts – Drink plenty of water every day. This warm, dry air will dehydrate

Camping Standards Awards

11th Jan. Troops - 0311, 0608, 0703

MARKET DAY

Leaders & Scouts from Troop 0608 preparing toffees for their sweet stall.

Michaela, Rachel & Kade selling the 700th toffee. Great effort Troop 0608!

There was a queue a mile long at this stall and all were boys. I wonder why! Alysse, Bec, Jen & Steph were asking $1 / minute and must have made a fortune.

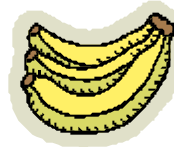

After a busy morning, Emily, Simon, Cassie, Jessica R, Jessica W & Chris headed back to the resort. Actually Troop 1102 have had the pool up since Monday but

Come into QCHQ and sign the visitor book and have your comments preserved for ever.

Congratulations to Jessica & Marion who were married today in Troop 1102. The wedding party was assisted by flower girls Christopher, Christopher & Quokka. Leaders performed the ceremony and the whole troop were invited to share the happy occasion.

Banana Eating Competition
I promised you some of the action the other day - well here it is.

Screen Printing will be available on Monday, Wednesday and Thursday only. If you want a shirt or whatever done, make sure you get it on these days