SCOUT JAMBOREE TALES FROM THE QUEENSLAND CONTINGENT

AJ2010 and the countdown begins!

In Mackay recently celebrating their 100 year milestone he discussed the Jamboree with some Scouts (pictured) — they were eager to hear all about AJ2010.

The countdown is now on with Jamboree Troop Leaders Weekend briefings, packing weekends, final newsletters all ago.

Contingent members will have received their DRAFT Transport Itinerary, souvenir applications have closed as we begin the final preparations.

Scouts are busy preparing and shortly they will be advised of their Troops for the Jamboree.

Get ready to 'TEST YOUR LIMITS'...

SMOKEY (Branch Commissioner for Scouts, Pieter Van Der Kamp) has been busy meeting and greeting as many of the 2010 Queensland Jamboree Contingent members as possible.

One of the first questions he asks any Scout he encounters is -

“Are YOU ready for the Jamboree at Cataract Park in Sydney this January?”

Introducing The Latest Goss... Jamboree tales

'The Latest Goss...' is the official newsletter of the Qld Contingent and will be distributed daily during the Jamboree to each Troop, Sub Camp and Service Leader.

This is a valuable communication tool to keep you up-to-date with information direct from the Queensland Contingent.

Welfare will post tips and advice to assist the Scouts and Leaders to have the best Camp possible.

Please take the time to read 'The Latest Goss...' and remember its for all Queenslanders.

Stories will highlight our Scouts participating in the many varied activities.

It will also be posted on the Queensland Contingent's website for the folks at home.

Remember to let us know in advance of any stories you would like us to share.

Keep 'Scoop' informed - she's easy to recognise—she's chatting to every Queenslanders with camera in hand!

Special points of interest:

- REMEMBER FOR PHOTOS TO BE PRINTED YOU NEED CLOSE UP SHOTS NOT A CAST OF THOUSANDS
- LET 'SCOOP' KNOW ABOUT ANYTHING SPECIAL WITHIN YOUR TROOP—SIBLINGS, TWINS, NEWSWORTHY STORIES OF INTEREST...
- 'THE LATEST GOSS...' WILL BE POSTED ALONG WITH PHOTOS ON THE QUEENSLAND WEBSITE SO LET THE FOLKS AT HOME KNOW—THEY CAN LOG ON AND SHARE THE FUN
